Subject: RE: Response your inquiry to Justin Kaplan

Thank you for your response. I was just about to send Jodi Flowers an e-mail on this matter; however, I will direct it to you instead.

Simply stated, we barely received a copy of your Exhibit B as of yesterday April 11, 2006. Had we known your firm was moving for a default against three of our clients, we would have entered into a dialogue with you as we have with the Federal Ins. and O'Neil Plaintiffs and asked for a stipulation for an extension of time so we could have an opportunity to respond to your complaint.

Given the current situation, however, instead of a stipulation, we ask if your firm would consider a consent motion to vacate the default as it relates to three of our clients:

1. Sanabil, Inc. & Sanabel Al Kheer
2. Al Shamal Islamic Bank
3. Tadamon Islamic Bank

Please advise of your position on this request.
Thank You.

Subject: Response your inquiry to Justin Kaplan

Dear Lisa:

I received a message forwarded to me from Justin Kaplan. I understand that you have some concerns regarding default papers that the plaintiffs in Burnett filed fairly recently. If you will address your questions in this regard to me, I would be happy to take a look at them and try to get you some answers for you. I anticipate being out of the office for a few days, but if you get your inquiries to me today or tomorrow, I assure you that I will endeavor to respond to your inquiries by either Tuesday or Wednesday of next week, after I have had an opportunity to review the files related to your questions. I look forward to hearing back from you.

Sincerely,

Robert T. Haefele
